

I never felt jealous of any of the Prophet's wives except for Khadijah although I did not see her. She further added that whenever the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) slaughters a sheep, he says: Send some of it to the companions of Khadijah

'Ā'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) reported: I never felt jealous of any of the Prophet's wives except for Khadijah although I did not (have the privilege to) see her.

She further added that whenever the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) slaughters a sheep, he says: "Send some of it to the companions of Khadijah." She said: "But one day I annoyed him and said: (It is) Khadijah (only that you mention often)!" Thereupon the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon her) said: "My love of her has been planted in my heart (by Allah)."

[Authentic hadith] [Narrated by Muslim]

'Ā'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) informs that she did not feel jealous of any of the Prophet's wives except Khadijah, may Allah be pleased with her although Khadijah had died before the Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) married 'Ā'ishah. Whenever the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) slaughtered a sheep, he would send some of it to Khadijah's friends. 'Ā'ishah angered the Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) one day by telling him that he mentions Khadijah very often, but he replied that Allah has made him to love her in this way.

<https://sunnah.global/hadeeth/en/show/11175>

