

The Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) did not observe a voluntary prayer more regularly than the two Rak'ahs of Fajr

'Ā'ishah bint Abu Bakr As-Siddīq (may Allah be pleased with her) reported: The Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) did not observe a voluntary prayer more regularly than the two Rak'ahs of Fajr. Another narration reads: "The two Rak'ahs of Fajr are better than the entire world."

[Authentic hadith] [Narrated by Muslim - Narrated by Bukhari & Muslim]

This Hadīth shows the importance of the two confirmed supererogatory Rak'ahs of Fajr. 'Ā'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) mentioned that the Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) affirmed them and emphasized their significance by what he did, as he used to regularly observe them, and by saying that they are better than the world and everything therein.
