

If the son of Adam were to own a valley of gold, he would desire to have two valleys. Nothing can fill his mouth except dust, and Allah accepts the repentance of whoever repents

'Abdullāh ibn 'Abbās, Anas ibn Mālik, 'Abdullāh ibn Az-Zubayr, and Abu Mūsa al-Ash'ari (may Allah be pleased with them) reported that the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) said: "If the son of Adam were to own a valley of gold, he would desire to have two valleys. Nothing can fill his mouth except dust, and Allah accepts the repentance of whoever repents."

[Authentic hadith] [Narrated by Bukhari - Narrated by Muslim - Al-Bukhari and Muslim with its two versions]

The Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) informed us that if the son of Adam had a valley filled with gold, then he would love to have two valleys of gold out of his greed, which is part of his nature. He will continue to be greedy for worldly possessions until he dies and his mouth and belly are filled with the dirt of his grave.
