

Allah is Lenient and He loves leniency in all matters

'Ā'ishah (may Allah be pleased with her) reported that the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Allah is Lenient and He loves leniency in all matters." She also reported: The Prophet (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) said: "Allah is Lenient and He loves leniency. He rewards for leniency what He does not reward for harshness or for anything else."

[Authentic hadith] [Narrated by Muslim - Narrated by Bukhari & Muslim]

Allah is Lenient, and He loves those of His slaves who are lenient towards His creation, gentle, and pleasant in dealing with others. He rewards those lenient people more than any who are harsh and overly strict, and rewards for leniency and gentleness that which He does not reward for any other thing. This great characteristic of leniency and gentleness is beloved to Allah and therefore a Muslim should always characterize himself with this trait.
