O Allah, I ask You! Do You see the people who hasten to the Hajj, do You see the angels of Yours? Then Allah said: "O! My angels, I make you witness that I have forgiven them."

Abdullah bin Amr bin Al-As narrated that the Messenger of Allah said: O Allah, I ask You! Do You see the people who hasten to the Hajj, do You see the angels of Yours? Then Allah said: "O! My angels, I make you witness that I have forgiven them."

[Ahmad] [Graded Hasan by Shu'ayb al-Arna'ut]

Allah has angels who travel the earth to find gatherings of people who remember Allah. When they find a gathering of people who remember Allah, they sit with them and encircle them with their wings all the way to the sky. When the people disperse, the angels ascend to the sky. Allah asks them, although He knows more than them, where they have been. They say, We have been with a group of people who were glorifying You, declaring Your greatness, praising You, and asking You for what they need. Allah says, What do they ask Me for? They say, They ask You for Your Paradise. Allah says, Have they seen My Paradise? They say, No, O Lord. Allah says, How would it be if they saw My Paradise? They say, They ask You for protection. Allah says, From what do they ask Me for protection? They say, From Your Fire, O Lord. Allah says, Have they seen My Fire? They say, No. Allah says, How would it be if they saw My Fire? They say, They ask You for forgiveness. Allah says, I have forgiven them and given them what they ask for and protected them from what they ask protection from. They say, O Lord, among them is a sinful servant who passed by them and sat with them. Allah says, I have forgiven him as well. They are a group whose companion will not be deprived.
