As-Sahih Al-Jami'u As-Saghir is a collection of authentic hadiths compiled by Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal. It is one of the most important books in the science of hadith. The collection contains 6533 hadiths, which are arranged in a systematic order. The hadiths are classified into four categories: Sahih, Hasan, Dabih, and Mawdu'at. The Sahih hadiths are those that are authentic and reliable. The Hasan hadiths are those that are good and reliable. The Dabih hadiths are those that are weak and unreliable. The Mawdu'at hadiths are those that are fabricated and false. The collection is a treasure trove of knowledge for anyone who is interested in the life and teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ). It is a must-read for every Muslim who wants to understand the Sunnah of his Prophet. The collection is available in Arabic, English, and Urdu. It is a valuable resource for scholars and students alike. The collection is a masterpiece of Islamic scholarship and a source of inspiration for all who seek the guidance of the Prophet (ﷺ).
